Professional statement

I am passionate about cybersecurity, enjoy developing solutions that can positively impact an organization and the people it serves, and work to maintain core security principles including confidentiality and integrity, and ethics.